

Thanksgiving Invitational

The wonderful swimming continued at the Thanksgiving Invitational. After all the celebrations from Thanksgiving the Senior group stepped up and swam their hardest at the meet.

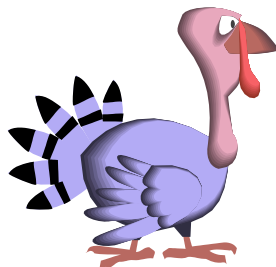

Emma Stern is showing amazing improvements this year. At Chappys, and now at Thanksgiving, Emma is doing nothing but shaving off seconds in her events. It is a joy to watch her swim knowing that she is enjoying herself and pushing herself every race. Emma swam five best times! Great job Em, keep up all the hard work!!

After Chappy's Pedro just missed a few Silver cuts... but after continuing to work hard, Pedro was able to make his first Silver cut in the 200 Free.

Great job Pedro!

Allison Giraldo also had a wonderful meet. Allison dropped almost 6 seconds in her 100 butterfly. Great job Allison!!

Nicky Johns had another outstanding swim meet. Nicky swam 5 lifetime best times. Great job Nicky.

Swimmers of the Meet

Pamela Leon was swimmer of the meet for the girls. Pamela comes to practice every day and pushes herself as hard as she can. Pamela swam 5 events and had all best times. After just turning 13, Pamela was able to make her first Silver cut as a 13 year old in her 100 backstroke. Good job Pam!

For the boys Erjin Cho was swimmer of the meet. Erjin was able to show off his new breaststroke kick at the meet and went a 1:15 in his 100 free dropping 4 seconds. He swam 5 best times and made his first Silver cut in his 50 Backstroke. Great swimming Erjin!
